

Center for Puppetry Arts
Marketing Department
Photography Intern
Job Description

The Center for Puppetry Arts seeks a photography intern to document the Center's special events. This internship will give the intern valuable, real-world experience.

The intern will work on an as-needed basis for a period of three months, or longer if both parties wish. Occasional weekend and evening work may be required.

The intern will be an integral part of the Marketing/Development departments, and as such, their ideas and input will be valued.

Payment will be the photographs produced that the intern can put into his/her portfolio. In addition, the intern will receive 4 free tickets to all family performances, and 2 free tickets to all adult performances during the internship, as well as a 20% discount in the Center's Museum Store.

At the end of the internship, the intern will fill out a written evaluation of the program, and the intern's supervisor will fill out a written evaluation of the intern's abilities and progress. The supervisor can be used as a reference for future job search.

A resume and photography samples are required for consideration.
